PROVIDED BY TELEPHONE

Professional Geologist (PG), Geologist-In-Training (GIT), Certified Engineering Geologist (CEG), Certified Hydrogeologist (CHG), and Professional Geophysicists (PGp) examinations results were mailed on December 20, 2012.

Result letters are sent through the United States Postal Service. Please do not request a duplicate result letter unless you have not received the original result letter by December 27, 2012.

The result letters are mailed to the candidate at his or her address of record. If you have changed your address of record since the examination and you have not yet notified the Board directly, you need to complete the online Address Change Request Form (available on the Board's web site). Submitting a change of address or forwarding request to the U.S. Postal Service is not sufficient; you must notify the Board directly.

Examination Review and Appeals

Examination review and appeals are not available for the FG, PG and GIT examinations. ASBOG® only allows for review and re-scores when mandated by state law. California has no such law in effect for the PG or GIT examinations. Appeals for the CEG, CHG, and PGp examinations require that you score within 10% of the passing scores. If you qualify for an appeal, your result notice will indicate the date that appeals will be held and how to schedule your review and appeal.

Applicants Who Failed One or More Examination(s)

Applicants who took and failed one or more examinations in October 2012 can file a re-take application. Re-take applications for the March 2013 examinations (GIT, FG, PG and CSE) must be postmarked by January 4, 2013; the CEG, CHG and PGp examinations will not be administered again until October 2013.

Applicants Who Failed to Appear for One or More Examination(s)

Applicants who did not take one or more examinations for which they were scheduled and do not have an approved "Request for Postponement" for the examination(s) in question, will be required to submit a new initial application for future examination(s), including all application and examination fees, by the scheduled final filing date for the examination they wish to take.
